

Field: IT
Module title: Macroeconomics (ME.4)
Preliminary conditions: none
Education aims: Delivery of knowledge about basic economy rules, explanation and understanding of mechanism of economy.
Education outcomes: Student has a knowledge about basic economy rules, main paradigms in macroeconomics. Understand business fluctuations in the market economy and economic role of a government. Can use bibliography and internet issues to get the knowledge about macroeconomics
Module type and contents: Creation and distribution of national income and his measurement. Two paradigms in macroeconomics. Basic foundations and statements of the Keynesian economy. Business fluctuations in the market economy. Economic role of government. Budget policy. Monetary and credit system. Unemployment. Inflation. International trade. Balance of payments and foreign exchange rates.
Educational methods: Lessons, classes.
Assessment methods: Examination.
ECTS credits: 5
Students workload (hs.): 125
Form Number of hours: 20
Author of a module: Joanna Kenc, PhD
Module language: english